NOTIFICATION.

Fort St. George, December 22, 1915

No. 13.—The Madras Cyclone Code revised under the orders of the Government of India will be republished for information and guidance.

MADRAS PRESIDENCY CYCLONE CODE

CHAPTER I.—General arrangements in connection with the hoisting of storm signals at Madras and minor ports.

1. The arrangements for the communication to the Presidency Port Officer, to the Deputy Port Conservator, Madras, and to the several minor port officers, of information respecting the formation, growth and course of cyclonic storms, necessary for their guidance in hoisting the storm signals, are carried out by the Meteorologists at Simla and Calcutta under the general direction of the Director-General of Observatories.

2. The meaning of any given signal under the new system will be the same throughout the Indian seas, the only difference between different ports being that a larger or smaller number of signals will be in use. The flag signals under the old system will be replaced by signals giving the locality of disturbances, and the sending of eight-word code telegrams to Port officers as hitherto will be discontinued. The revised scheme may be shortly described as—

(a) A general system of eleven signals, two of which will indicate the existence of distant disturbed weather, eight will indicate that local bad weather threatens the port, while the remaining one will indicate that communication with the Meteorological Department has broken down and that in the opinion of the local officer there is danger of bad weather.

(b) A brief system consisting of four only of the above signals. This system will be used at a few ports frequented mainly by small Indian boats engaged in local traffic.

(c) The general system combined with additional daily signals either to indicate that weather is undisturbed or if bad weather exists to show the position of the disturbance. This system will be in daily operation at certain stations in the Bay of Bengal and has been devised to replace the flag signals at present in use.]

Except in regard to the supply of information by wireless telegraphy (appendix C) the scheme will be brought into force with effect from January 1st, 1916.

The following are the ports in the Madras Presidency from which storm warnings will be shown as in appendix A :—

General system.		General system with additional signals.
Arabian Sea.	Bay of Bengal.	Bay of Bengal.
Coondapoor.	Gopalpur	Coconada.
Mangalore.	Calingapatam.	Madras.
Cannanore	Bimlipatam.	Cuddalore.
Tellicherry.	Vizagapatam.	Porto Novo.
Calicut.	Masulipatam.	Negapatam.
Baypore.	Pamban.
Cochin.	Tuticorin.

3. The Meteorologist, Calcutta, supplies the information and works the system for the ports on the Bay of Bengal, and the Meteorologist, Simla, for the ports on the Arabian Sea, as defined above These officers also afford information respecting the first indications of bad weather in the Bay of Bengal and the Indian Ocean to the Presidency Port Officer, to the Deputy Port Conservator and to the Chief Engineer for Irrigation, Madras.

4. As soon as the existence and probable course of a cyclonic storm in the Bay of Bengal or the Indian Ocean has been ascertained by the Meteorologists at Calcutta or Simla, the Deputy Port Conservator, Madras, Port officers of the ports likely to be affected by the storm and the Chief Engineer for Irrigation, Madras, will be informed and warned by the Meteorologist appointed to give such warnings to his port. The warning signal should usually be hoisted immediately after the receipt of this information. The Meteorologist will continue to keep the Deputy Port Conservator, Madras and Port officers of the warned ports acquainted with the growth, progress, course and other features of the storm, which will be useful as a guide to these officers in hoisting, when necessary, the danger signal The danger signal should be hoisted as soon as the Deputy Port Conservator, Madras, or the Port Officer considers it advisable to warn the shipping that a cyclone is approaching either the port itself or the coast in the near vicinity. By these arrangements, the Meteorologists will transmit information and warnings direct to the Presidency Port officer and Deputy Port Conservator at Madras and the Port officers of Mangalore, Tellicherry, Calicut, Cochin, Gopalpur, Vizagapatam, Masulipatam, Pamban, Tuticorin, Negapatam, Coconada, Cuddalore and the Port Conservators at Calingapatam and Porto Novo. At the remaining ports, viz., Bimlipatam, Cannanore, Baypore and Coondapoor, where the signals will be hoisted by the Port Conservators, the Port officers under whom they are immediately placed will instruct them by urgent telegram to hoist the warning and danger signals at the same time that they hoist them at their own ports. By this arrangement information respecting bad weather and direction relating to the hoisting of storm signals will be communicated to the—

Port Conservator of Baypore—By the Port Officer of Calicut.
Port Conservator of Cannanore—By the Port Officer of Tellicherry.
Port Conservator of Coondapoor—By the Port Officer, Mangalore.
Port Conservator of Bimlipatam—By the Port Officer of Vizagapatam.

5. Copies of all telegrams despatched to the Deputy Port Conservator at Madras and to Port officers relating to the approach of cyclonic storms, will be sent at the same time to the Presidency Port Officer, Madras, in order that he may be kept fully acquainted with the weather information and instructions communicated by the Meteorologists to the Port officers subordinate to him.

6. The duties of the Meteorologists at Simla and Calcutta are confined solely to furnishing as definite, full, and early information as possible of the character, position, course, probable time of approach, and varying phases of cyclonic storms, to the Port officers of all ports to which the cyclone will probably cause dangerous weather and a high sea. The responsibility of hoisting and taking down the storm signals rests solely with the Port officers at minor ports, and at Madras with the Deputy Conservator of the Port. These officers will usually be guided mainly by the information received from the Meteorologist, but if that information be insufficient or be delayed in transmission, or if telegraphic communication be suspended by breaks in the lines, they will then be guided by the indications of the barometer, force of the wind, state of the sea, and general aspect of the weather. The Deputy Conservator of the Port of Madras should also place himself in communication with the Meteorologist, Madras, and Deputy Director of the Madras Observatory or the Director of the Kodaikánal and Madras Observatories; both these officers should afford him full information.

7. The Deputy Port Conservator at Madras and all Port officers noting the appearance of suspicious weather before the receipt of any telegrams from the Meteorologist in connection (or co-operating) with them, should communicate the information without delay to that officer.

8 The Deputy Port Conservator at Madras and all Port officers in the Presidency receiving telegrams from the Meteorologists during a storm should send a brief statement, after the cyclone has passed away, of the telegrams received from the Meteorologists and of the exact times when they were delivered by the telegraph officers, etc., in order that the Meteorological department may exercise an effective check over this part of the working of the system and secure the necessary rapidity of telegraphic communication required for the proper working of the system.

CHAPTER II.—General arrangements to be made at Madras on the "Warning," "Danger" or "Great Danger" signals being hoisted at the Port Flagstaff on Central Tower of Harbour office.

1. All arrangements in connection with the safety of the shipping will be made by the Deputy Port Conservator upon whom solely the responsibility will rest.

2. When any of these storm signals are hoisted at or lowered from the flagstaff, the fact is to be communicated as soon as practicable by the Deputy Conservator of the Port to the undermentioned officials, viz.—

The Chief Secretary to Government, Marine Department, when in Madras.
The Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor, should His Excellency be in Madras.
The Presidency Port Officer.
The Chairman, Madras Port Trust Board.
The Commissioner of Police.
The Executive Engineer, Chingleput Division, Chepauk
The Collector of Chingleput, Saidapet.
The Officer Commanding Madras, Fort St. George
The President of the Madras Corporation.
The Superintendent of Telegraph Engineering, Madras Division.
The Port Captain, Pondicherry

During office hours the Secretary to Government, Marine Department, is to be kept informed of particulars relating to the direction of the storm.

Between 5 P.M. and 11 A.M., the same particulars are to be furnished by telephone to the Executive Engineer, Chingleput division, Chepauk, should the storm be approaching the Port of Madras.

3. The Government Telephone Exchange will be kept open day and night during the time that the signals are hoisted.

4 The Port Life Saving Apparatus will be kept ready for immediate use

5. Should the Deputy Port Conservator require any assistance from the following departments, it will be given at once upon that officer applying for same :—

Police Boat establishment (on application to the Deputy Commissioner of Police Northern Range).
Harbour Engineer establishments (on application to the Chairman, Port Trust Board)

6. On the "Danger" signal being hoisted, the Commissioner of Police will place at the disposal of the Deputy Port Conservator two mounted orderlies, and keep fifty men available at the beach for duty.

CHAPTER III.—Wreck arrangements at Madras.

Should the Deputy Port Conservator consider that there will be danger to life, he will inform the following officers and departments :—

The Port Surgeon.
The Resident Surgeon, General Hospital.
The Ordnance department.
The Officer Commanding Madras, Fort St. George.

2 Upon receipt of this information the Port Surgeon taking with him a portion of his establishment and medicines and surgical appliances will immediately proceed to the scene of wreck and render all assistance possible.

3. The Resident Surgeon, General Hospital, will make preparations to receive sick and wounded. The Ordnance department will comply with any requisitions from the Deputy Port Conservator to provide tents for ship-wrecked people and men to pitch them.

4 The Officer Commanding Madras, Fort St. George, will be prepared to comply with any requisitions from the Deputy Port Conservator to supply trollies, dandies, blankets, towels, brandy, water and other medical comforts, etc., and send a sufficient number of men to look after the trollies and to carry the dandies

5. In the event of a working party being required from the troops in garrison they will be supplied by the Officer Commanding Madras, Fort St. George, upon application from the Deputy Port Conservator.

Police Department.

6. On the Inspector of Harbour Police being informed by the Deputy Conservator of the Port of imminent danger of wrecks occurring, he will promptly send intelligence to the Deputy Commissioner of Police, Northern Range, who will immediately increase that division to such an extent as may be practicable at the time.

7. The entire Police force pending the arrival of the Commissioner will be under the Deputy Commissioner, who will consult the Deputy Conservator of the Port on the spot as to where the services of his men are likely to be required, and will issue whatever detailed orders are requisite.

8. The Police will be mainly restricted to their own proper duties, i.e., the maintenance of order; protecting personal or other property washed on shore; supervising the conveyance of the ship-wrecked crews and passengers to the nearest shelter, and to hospital if necessary; bringing back the hammocks, doolies and sick-carts; guarding or removing the dead, etc. They are not to be employed in hauling ropes or recovering wreckage or cargo, save in urgent circumstances when other labour is not available.

9. The Commissioner of Police will see that duties are so apportioned as to enable the men to be relieved from the reserves as frequently as circumstances may render requisite.

10. All officers and men must be in uniform.

APPENDIX A.

DISTANT SIGNALS

to indicate danger to ships after they have left the harbour

I. CAUTIONARY.—There is a region of squally weather in which a storm may be forming.

NOTE.—This signal will be hoisted at ports situated with reference to the disturbed weather such that a ship leaving the port might run into danger during its voyage. It will also be hoisted at Aden in the ports when a disturbance is crossing the Peninsula which may develop into a cyclone after entering the Arabian Sea.

II. WARNING.—A storm has formed.

NOTE.—This signal will be hoisted when there is no immediate danger of the port itself being affected, but ships leaving the port might run into the storm.

LOCAL SIGNALS

to indicate that the port and ships in it are threatened.

III. CAUTIONARY.—The port is threatened by squally weather.

IV. WARNING.—The port is threatened by a storm but it does not appear that the danger is as yet sufficiently great to justify extreme measures of precaution.

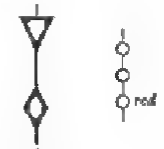
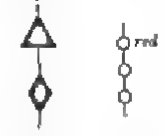
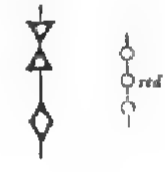
NOTE.—The existence of a storm can often be determined before its direction of motion can be fixed. In this case all those ports which the storm could possibly strike will be warned by this signal.



V. DANGER.—The port will experience severe weather from a storm of slight or moderate intensity that is expected to cross the coast to the south of the port (or to the east in the case of Veraval, the Hooghly Ports, Diamond Island, Bassein, Rangoon and the Andamans).



VI. DANGER.—The port will experience severe weather from a storm of slight or moderate intensity that is expected to cross the coast to the north of the port (or to the west in the case of the Hooghly Ports, Chittagong, Rangoon, Moulmein, Karachi and the Andamans).



VII. DANGER.—The port will experience severe weather from a storm of slight or moderate intensity that is expected to cross over or near to the port.

	Day.	Night.
VIII. GREAT DANGER.—The port will experience severe weather from a storm of great intensity that is expected to cross the coast to the south of the port (or to the east in the case of Veraval, the Hooghly Ports, Diamond Island, Bassein, Rangoon and the Andamans).		red red
IX. GREAT DANGER.—The port will experience severe weather from a storm of great intensity that is expected to cross the coast to the north of the port (or to the west in the case of the Hooghly Ports, Chittagong, Rangoon, Moulmein, Karachi and the Andamans).		red red
X. GREAT DANGER.—The port will experience severe weather from a storm of great intensity that is expected to cross over or near to the port.		red red
XI. FAILURE OF COMMUNICATIONS.—Communication with the meteorological headquarters has broken down and the local officer considers that there is danger of bad weather.		red

II.—Brief System

for use at certain small ports

In the brief system only the four following signals will be hoisted, but the port officers will be kept informed of the progress of bad weather for the general information of shipping.

Signal No III—Cautionary Signal No. IV—Warning Signal No VII—Danger Signal No. X—Great Danger	Meaning day and night signals as in the General system.

III.—Additional Daily Signals for the Bay of Bengal.*

In order to give daily information to a port regarding weather in the Bay it is necessary to provide for the following cases:—

(a) if no disturbance exists in the Bay of Bengal the fact will be indicated by hoisting a ball,

(b) if the port itself is threatened the appropriate local signal of the "general system" will be hoisted,

(c) if there be an area of squally weather or a storm that does not threaten the port the "distant cautionary" or "distant warning" of the "general system" will be hoisted, and additional signs will be hoisted under these to indicate the position of the disturbance in the Bay. For this purpose the Bay has been divided into six sections as shown on the accompanying map, † and the following shapes have been allotted to each of the divisions:—

Division	I	II	III	IV	V	VI
Signal

* In the Bay of Bengal it is possible to locate the area of bad weather with some degree of certainty even when it is far from the coast. This is not the case in the Arabian Sea, the coast lines over which have to be inferred from the observations on the west coast of India only. Locality signals are therefore at present limited to the Bay area.

† The sections may be defined as follows:—
I.—contains the area north of lat. 18½°;
II.—lies south of I; it is bounded on the south by lat. 13° and to the east by long. 88½°;
III.—lies south of I and east of II; it is bounded to the south by lat. 13° and to the east by a line from the point 13° N. 94° E. to Diamond Island together with the Arakan coast thence up to 18½° N.;
IV.—Lies south of II and west of 86°;
V.—Lies east of IV, south of II, III and west of 93°;
VI.—lies east of III; and V and represents the Andaman Sea.

Thus if there is squally weather in section V of the Bay the signal would be hoisted at the various ports; and if a storm has formed in section II the signal would be hoisted at all ports which were not directly threatened; as already stated the ports threatened would hoist one or other of the local signals. The Meteorological Department will endeavour to keep the number of locality signals on each hoist as few as possible and generally only the number of the section in which the centre of the storm is situated will be given. If however the centre of the storm is near the boundary of a division two locality signals will be given, the first indicating the division in which the centre is supposed to be and the second the neighbouring division near to which it is. In the event of a storm centre being near to the angles where three divisions meet, three locality signals will be hoisted. The first will give the division in which the storm is supposed to be, the second the nearest adjoining division and the third the remaining division.

APPENDIX B.

The following notes may facilitate the identification of the signals.

Day Signals.

(a) All distant signals, and only distant signals, have a bar either horizontal or vertical as their upper member.

(b) All local signals, and only local signals, have a triangle or a double triangle as their upper member.

(c) Cautionary and Warning signals (distant and local) consist of only one shape except at certain ports in the Bay of Bengal where additional shapes are used to indicate the locality of the disturbances.

(d) Danger signals consist of two shapes the lower of which indicates the severity of the storm and the upper where the storm is expected to cross the coast.

(e) A diamond as the lower member of a danger signal indicates danger and a vertical bar great danger.

(f) The point of the triangle of a danger signal indicates where the storm is expected to cross the coast—the point down indicates the south, the point up north, and the double triangle, with its points in the middle indicates at or near to the port itself.

Night Signals.

(g) Failure of communication signal consists of one lamp.

(h) Cautionary and Warning signals consist of two lamps.

(i) Danger signals consist of three lamps.

(j) The intensity of the danger is indicated by the number of red lamps in the danger signals there is only one red lamp and in the great danger two red lamps.

(k) The position of the red lamps in a danger signal indicates where the storm is likely to cross the coast. If there are more red lamps above the middle than below, the storm is expected to pass to the north. If there are more red lamps below the middle than above, the storm is expected to pass to the south. If the red lamps are symmetrical about the middle, the storm is expected to pass over the port itself.

Diet, Perishable—consists of perishable articles of daily supply (supply to continue from 1st April 1916 to 31st March 1917). An indent for each day's requirement will be given to the contractor. Payment will be made on monthly bills.

Non-diet, Perishable and Surgical Dressings—consists of articles to be indented for in quantities as required. Payment will be made on monthly bills. Supplies to continue from 1st April 1916 to 31st March 1917.

2. The articles required are detailed in the classified schedules annexed, and information as to samples, etc., may be had on personal application at the hospital.

3. Tenders will be opened by the Superintendent at the Voluntary Venereal Hospital at the appointed time in the presence of those interested who may choose to attend.

4. Tenders to be superscribed in the manner classified in paragraph 1 and on the covers the words "Tenders for hospital supplies" written. Each tender must contain not only the rates, but the total value of each item of supply entered in a separate column, the items in which must be totalled up showing the aggregate value of such entire tender.

5. Each tender must be accompanied by a deposit (in Government Promissory notes or Bank receipts) as earnest-money of the amount noted against each article. When several articles are tendered for, one Bank receipt for the total amount of earnest-money will be received. In default of such deposit the tender will be rejected, nor will any tender be received after the time fixed for the opening of tenders. No cash will be received. This deposit will be returned to unsuccessful tenderers immediately and to the others as soon as they have lodged the security mentioned in paragraph 7 infra.

6. No person making a tender shall be allowed to withdraw his tender for the space of thirty days from the date thereof, and, in the event of his so doing, his deposit shall be forfeited to Government.

7. The successful tenderer must within three days from date of receiving intimation that his tender has been accepted, lodge security, viz., 10 per cent on the total value of the articles, failing which his deposit will be forfeited to Government.

8. No advance of cash will be made to the contractor.

9. Bills on presentation will be passed by the Accountant-General for payment at the Madras Bank after delivery of the articles.

10. A fine, not exceeding 10 per cent of deposit money, will be levied for any infringement of the stipulations of the bond, and, if frequently repeated, the contract will be annulled and the security confiscated to Government.

11. The contract must not be sublet. The contractor's security, if not confiscated, will be returned to him immediately on completion of his contract.

12. The Superintendent reserves to himself the right to decline or accept the tender for any one or more of the articles tendered for by the successful tenderer without assigning any reason for so doing.

13. The Superintendent also reserves to himself the right of repeating tenders without assigning any reason for so doing.

14. The successful competitor will be required to pay the value of the proper stamp duty on the contract.

15. Government promissory notes lodged as earnest-money or security deposit for a period of twelve months or less shall not be endorsed over to the Superintendent but shall remain in the name of the depositor. Government will renew or cancel the notes as per G.O. No. 2458, dated 31st March 1890, authority to that effect being duly entered on the contract or other document executed by the depositor.

16. With reference to the stipulations contained in the preceding paragraph 15, the tenderer should attach a certificate to his schedule or schedules to the following effect :—

"I, the tenderer, agree to keep the earnest-money in Government promissory notes or Bank receipts confiscated to Government in case of my failure to undertake the contract."

17. No articles shall be supplied to the hospital except on authority signed by the Superintendent or by some responsible person authorised by him in writing to do so.

18. Printed forms of tenders can be had on application at the Voluntary Venereal Hospital, Madras.

19. If approved and tender accepted, the samples received will be counted as part of the supply. If rejected, the samples will be paid for at the tender rates. Tenderers are distinctly to understand that, if the tender be accepted, the balance of the article or articles required must be in every way equal to the approved sample. The opinion of the Superintendent to be final on this point.

20. The number or quantity entered in the form of tender is the minimum number or quantity which the Superintendent undertakes to require to be supplied, but the contractor will be under an obligation to supply such larger number or increased quantity as the Superintendent may require him to supply up to 25 per cent.
